Living a century apart and at opposite ends of the medieval world, Meister Eckhart and Muhyiddin Ibn ‘Arabi independently developed radical spiritual teachings that manifest surprisingly similar features. This presentation will consider how the Sufi master and the Dominican mystic can help bridge the gap between Muslim and Christian today.