The presentation focuses on how bilingual children learn to think and write in two languages. Metacognition, cultural differences and psycholinguistics are three topics that will be addressed. Samples of student work from elementary bilingual classrooms will be shared and analyzed.